

Will / Be Going To Predictions

TO EXPRESS	A prediction	Will or Be Going To	Is Used
	A prior Plan	Be Going To
	Willingness	Will

Match the sentences on the left with the predictions on the right.

1. The kids are tired out.	A. We're going to have a hard day.
2. I feel awful.	B. She'll be delighted.
3. Fred can't keep a secret.	C. It's going to be very crowded.
4. It's Saturday morning.	D. They are going to win again.
5. The referee is looking at his watch.	E. They'll probably fall asleep.
6. We have a lot to do.	F. He's going to blow his whistle.
7. Liverpool are three goals ahead.	G. He'll tell everybody.
8. Have you told Kate about your new job?	H. I think I'm going to faint.
9. They are having a big party next week.	I. The shops will probably be very crowded.
10. Liverpool have a very good side.	J. I think they will win easily.