

Infinitives after object/object pronoun

We often use an object between the following verbs and an infinitive:

- Advise
- Allow
- Ask
- Expect
- Invite
- Need
- Permit
- Tell
- Want
- Would like

In each of the following sentences, circle the object and underline the infinitive [phrase].

1. I want you to help me after class.
2. She invited her friends to have dinner with her.
3. My counselor advised me to take this class.
4. I expect you to study before the test.

Now, answer the following questions. Pay attention to using an infinitive after the object.

1. What do parents expect their children to do?

2. Imagine someone is going to visit your country. Where would you advise him/her to go?

3. Imagine you are going to meet with the president of this country. What would you ask him to do?

4. Imagine it is your birthday and you want to spend time with your friends. What would you invite them to do?
